Report of the Superintendent of Schools

It doesn't seem possible that we are getting ready for our regular school meeting, but looking at the calendar it is very evident that the time has elapsed and we are honored and privileged to be able to give our annual report to you.

This year many changes in personnel, curriculum, etc., have evolved. Our good friend, Robert Cushing, who was a principal at North Stratford for fifteen years decided to go back into the classroom and from all reports is doing a fine job as we knew he would. His replacement is eminently qualified for the position and this assists us greatly in the perpetuating of our fine educational program and he, also, has the background, desire, and ability to implement some of the new programs that will further enhance and better prepare our students without going overboard or making change just for the sake of change. I feel that we are meeting the needs of our students better this year than any year previous. We are, as you know trying to take the recommendations that were made by the New England Evaluating Committee and implement them as soon as possible. Mr. Warren Toohig, our new principal, has eight years' experience as a teacher and has his Master's Degree and is interested in more than just the curriculum. He is interested in the individual child and setting and creating standards that will meet the needs of all of our children, not just the college prep or terminal but the total student. This philosophy I certainly concur with and it is the desire, I believe, of all administrators who are really concerned with our children.

We have had several new additions to our faculty. Number one, Mr. Barton Roberts who coached the boys' soccer team, is Physical Education teacher and Social Studies teacher, also, Mr. Donald Araujo who has worked very diligently with our basketball team and will do the same with baseball. He is the head coach and, also, shares responsibility of the Science and Physical Education classes. Both these men are fully qualified and certified in the area of their responsibility.

It is, also, to be noted that through the cooperation of the selectmen and Mr. Araujo we now have a recreation program on Saturday mornings serving some 80 students. We feel we are getting more out of our physical plant and certainly our Physical Education equipment by this program and, of course, more important than that we are meeting the recreational needs of our young people here in town which has been needed for so many years.

We have been very fortunate in acquiring the services of Miss Sandra Texeira whom I know you will realize is doing an outstanding job if you could but visit not only her classroom, but the school in general, for the children's work is displayed in many areas and if you are a sports' enthusiast and get into our gymnasium you will see Leo the Lion who is our mascot sitting in a place of prominence in the gymnasium. This has been the handy work of many students under the tutelage and guidance of Miss Texeira. She is and has done an outstanding job in developing our muchly needed Art program. Along with her other duties Miss Texeira will be the girls' softball coach. Also, her department has designed a school seal which is now being used on book covers and other official literature of the school.

It is, also, to be noted that we have perpetuated and gone into greater depth with the In-Service Work Study program with the assistance of Mr. Bruno, Mr. Toohig, and Mrs. Patty Hart. Our girls can get first hand experience of the various office practices at the mill and our boys can get a good depiction of what the mill procedures and processes are.

It, also, is to be noted that each student Grades 1 to 12 has been given an I.Q. Test and Reading Readiness Test so that we may better identify and, hopefully, correct any major reading difficulties that become apparent. All this has been undertaken under the tutelage of Mrs. Lillian Gilman, our very fine remedial reading teacher and the administration. It is quite easy for us to identify areas of weakness, but the secret and the value of any of these identifying programs is what we do to correct the discrepancies or weaknesses. This Mrs. Gilman is trying to do and our heartfelt thanks are forthcoming for a job well done.

Compliments, accolades, etc. must be given to Miss Stratford in the person of Mrs. Mary Nugent who this year has been given not only the title but the responsibilities of Vice Principal of the North Stratford School. Under her apt guidance and tutelage the library has grown to proportions that are beginning to meet the needs of our student body. She has worked very diligently with governmental programs, namely Title II to see that North Stratford's library program is bolstered and has worked untiringly with Mr. Toohig in setting up educational goals, principles, concepts, and standards.

You will, also, note that we have this year for the first time established our National Honor Society. The formal induction of new officers will take place in February.

It should be, also, brought out that with the cooperation of the administration, staff and student-body we now have a workable Code of Ethics and Code of Attire that was developed by the aforementioned group. The Student Council must be complimented for the surveys that were conducted by this group regarding our Social Education Sex program which will officially be kicked off next year. The Board felt this problem should be handled within the school system and that students needed guidance in these areas and that with the cooperation of the home, church, medical staff consultants and faculty that we could meet these problems head on and save many of the young people from making wrong decisions and point out to them the proper meaning of compatibility, companionship and all the myriads of details and aspects that go along with our young people growing up or maturation.

Plaudits, also, must go to the Student Council for the very businesslike way they have conducted campaigns and elections and to the purposeful way in which they have organized themselves. It has been my reflection in many cases Student Council officers are elected by popular contest and not by any definite campaign or serious platform that they might advocate. This year the election was very dignified and was handled the way we all feel a student campaign should be handled. The Student Council, also, should be given respect. It is not and should not be a mere postage stamp of the administration. The Council, I am happy to say, in Stratford is functioning very well. The Student Council is a very important part of our school life and should be there to assist the administration, teachers, and, of course, students in whatever way feasible.

Mid January marked the kickoff of our new Physical Education program which was expanded to include the elementary children as well. This is under the tutelage of Mr. Araujo who is also, meeting a very necessary heretofore not covered need.

We have a new program that was instituted by Mr. Grimes, that of Mechanical Drawing. Our students, also, worked very closely with the top echelon at the mill to get first hand experience on a Work Study program regarding this.

This year will see the evolving of the first student teacher handbook that will give the background of history, traditions, rules, regulations, etc. that are applicable to North Stratford High School.

Another innovation that should be mentioned is the concept of using students of the Junior and Senior Classes as consultants with younger children in a reading laboratory. These student consultants work very closely with the faculty and establish excellent rapport between student and teacher. They follow out a program that is implemented, organized, and set up by the respective faculty member to assist some of our students who are having difficulty in their subject matter areas.

Mrs. Bryan certainly strengthened our primary program. Through her cooperation and the Board's approval she will be attending a Reading Institute at Hofstra University in New York on the new I.T.A. (Initial Teaching Alphabet) program. This is an innovation that we are proud to say is unique to Supervisory Union, No. 58. Groveton was the first in the state to have such a program to identify reading needs, discrepancies and a means of doing something about their reading problems. This is a major break through, we think, in the field of reading. We feel very encouraged, also, that Plymouth this year for the first time after visiting our schools and seeing I.T.A. in action implemented a Course in I.T.A. that all elementary teachers must be exposed to.

The High School schedule this year is modified somewhat to include a 30 minute activity period. This provides the needed time that clubs can meet together, the band can meet together and that large groups or classes can be assimilated to meet when needed.

The prospects for next year look very hopeful and we are hoping, of course, to start off with I.T.A. We are studying the feasibility of initiating a 70 minute class period which will eliminate the many wasted minutes and hours in some cases of some of our young people in study halls. Our students will now have an opportunity of having back to back periods for not only Science, but, also Industrial Arts, Home Economics, Art itself, and possibly other subject matter areas. Heretofore, if a student was taking Home Economics as an example she would come in, get her work, try and get a machine set up to use, have a brief lecture, then the bell would ring and the reverse picture would take place. Probably one-third of the period was involved in taking up and setting down her project. With back to back periods students will have a full 140 minutes to work. Secondly, if a student has a problem in a specific subject this additional 20 minutes the teacher is there to assist, interpret, and explain. Heretofore in a study hall the teacher's time was wasted in many cases being a supervisor of discipline when he could be using his time so much more effectively in a classroom situation.

Also, we hope by the opening of school next year to have expanded facility in what is now our old storage room in an additional primary classroom. The Board has seen fit to hire an additional teacher to eliminate the double classes or overlapping of some of the elementary grades, so now we will have a teacher in each one of our classes which is something that has been needed for lo these many years. This project will be undertaken with the cooperation of Mr. Leslie Blodgett and Mr. Walling with assistance from Mr. Grimes and from time to time the assistance of some of his manual training students. The handywork of Mr. Blodgett was, also, very noticeable in the division of Mr. Toohig's and Mrs. Borst's office area. This is a distinct improvement.

Plant Improvements

Some plant improvements are the refurnishing and redecorating of Mrs. Bryan's First Grade room which I believe could be and is a model classroom. I don't care whether you go to New York, New Jersey, or California you won't find a more comfortable, practical classroom than this newly appointed classroom.

We, of course, are now in our new facilities in the new addition, the three classrooms, stage-music area and, of course, dressing facilities for both boys and girls Physical Education and Varsity programs.

For those of us who have had the opportunity of visiting the Hollow School where the fundamentals and background through Grades 1-6 were developed through the tutelage of Mrs. Boucher and Miss Balbas, we will see a fine educational program and with the outstanding services and interest of our new custodian, Mr. Clyde Ritchie, who takes a great deal of personal pride and interest in the plant and through his untiring efforts and work we have sanded, sealed, and waxed all the floors. Mr. Ritchie has, also, made bulletin boards and his handy work is in evidence wherever you turn within or outside the school. He is a definite asset and he has done an outstanding job this year.

The Board, also, is to be congratulated for over a period of the last three years we have finally provided the students of the Hollow School with a good place in which to work and, of course new furniture which was sorely needed.

We do wish that more parents could visit and stop in and see the Hollow School in operation and when you see the Hollow School in some cases miracles that have been performed by Mrs. Boucher and some of her students and the followup that Miss Balbas does, you will be as pleased as is the administration and Board in their untiring efforts and when they come up to the North Stratford School System we feel they have more than adequate preparation and background.

I am sure that we can all reflect that this year has been a fine year for North Stratford. The fine way in which the new administration and faculty both new and experienced and student-body have cooperated and the pride they all take in their school is highly evident in the high morale and the fine rapport that exists between student-teacher-administration. This, as you know, is what makes any venture a success, i.e. team work. We feel we have the team, the Board and the townspeople have given us the impetus and the wherewithall to guide and direct this team and, I think, we are seeing and noticing the results. May I take this opportunity to thank the Board, the townspeople, the administration, the faculty and, of course, our fine student-body for their cooperation for another successful year.

Respectfully submitted,

LINWOOD E. CLARKE,

Superintendent of Schools
